An Amazing Celebration Of Education

A huge thank you to all of our community for an amazing day of celebration. Here at Hannans Rd we have a wonderful, dedicated team of parents, staff and students and we are so fortunate to have so many “super heroes” that attend and visit our school. One of our special guests was author Robert Vescio. He was so impressed with our students and community…here’s what he had to say:

“There’s nothing more satisfying for an author, than seeing the smiles on children’s faces. It’s a great feeling knowing that I’m doing something wonderful for them. The students were attentive, curious and eager and asked great questions…the children left me feeling like a superhero, today.”

One of our other special guests was Uncle Steve who came and performed a traditional Aboriginal smoking ceremony to encourage good spirit within the school the school community.
